General Data Protection Regulation

Dear Member.

For the Museum of Power to comply with the new 'General Data Protection Regulation' the museum is required to seek your written consent to use the personal data you have provided to the museum (such as name address, telephone number and email address etc) for the museum to maintain contact with you as a member. The museum undertakes not to disclose the information you have provided, to any person other than a bona fide museum officer, or used for any other purpose than legitimate museum business.

You have the right to have your data amended or erased from the records of the museum within a reasonable time from the request being received.

If you are prepared to agree to this then would you be kind enough to complete, sign and return this form to me as soon as possible at:

The Museum of Power, Hatfield Road, Langford, Maldon Essex CM9 6QA.

Kind Regards

Ian Reed.

Museum of Power Secretary

To the Secretary of The Museum of Power,

Until further notice, I consent to the information I have provided to the Museum of Power as a condition of membership, to be disclosed only to bona fide museum officers or used only in respect of legitimate Museum of Power business.
