Thursday, 11th July 2019 : 10.30am - Noon

Price £5.00 including Tea/Coffee & Home Made Biscuits

On Thursday, 15th August the brilliant DOT Productions will be performing Jane Austen's Sense & Sensibility (as adapted by Dawn Bush).

To make the evening more special, the Museum is hosting an 'Informal Introduction to Jane Austen' talk and discussion. This is an opportunity to find out about the life and times of Jane Austen and the key themes of Sense and Sensibility. Whether you are familiar with the book and would like to share your ideas or simply interested in someone who is considered one of our greatest authors, you will be very welcome.

Our guest speaker is Joan Binder, who holds a BA English degree, is a qualified teacher and is the current Chair of the Plume Academy Trust.

To book your ticket – please visit the 'What's On' section of the Museum's web-site:
